

APR 18 1965

FOIAb3b

---

POINT OF VIEW

---

By MARGUERITE HIGGINS
Star Special Writer

President Johnson believes in keeping his secrets — even from such top secret-keepers as John McCone, outgoing head of the Central Intelligence Agency. McCone learned last weekend of his replacement at 3:30 Sunday afternoon in a presidential telephone call from the Texas ranch. The public announcement that it was to be Adm. William F. Raborn followed by a few hours. The admiral is also from Texas, by way of Oklahoma.

*****

CPYRGHT